Gainer Sold to Red Sox---Johnson to Oppose Jenning's Tigers Today

Red Sox Get Gainer From Detroit Tigers

of Series Today.

Manager Hughey and his peppery bun

Missing from the ranks of the Detroit team is Del Gainer, who, previous to this season, has been covering the first sack. Jennings yesterday sold Gainer to the Boston Red Sox for a cash consideration. Both clubs had been trying to make an advantageous swap of playing material but Jennings would not take what was offered in exchange for his first baseman. The sale was strictly on a cash basis, the Tiger leader refusing to divulge the amount of money his club received.

Jennings is of the oninion that any ball Jennings is of the opinion that any ball game his citul loges by one or two runs when Cobb is among the missing would have been chalked up a victory had the Georgia Peach been in the line-up. "We miss Ty out there every day. Sam Crawford has been hitting the ball hard, and I am sure Cobb would have been on the The bouts will be referred by P. F. O'Connor and William Peet. youngster, who has been going well, or Mains will do the hurling today for the Detroit crowd, while Manager Griffith has determined to open the series to work him again on Thursday

Jennings is enthusiastic about the work f Burns and Kavanaugh, the two new tembers of his infield. "Both of these boys have been putting up great games for us, both at home and abroad, and I can only ask that they continue to deliver the goods as they have to date, and my club will win many games this season," said the Tiger leader.

When told that the Federals were invading this formula. vading this territory and were playing Sunday games and that the town had been expecting the Washington club to initiate contests on the Sabbath, Jen nings expressed surprise that teams were
